

A DREADFUL CRIME.

A Negro Monster in Kansas—The Lynchers waiting, Rope in Hand.
Special Dispatch to THE EXAMINER.

Fort Scott, Kans., May 2.—An infamous and cruel outrage occurred here yesterday morning. At an early hour, Mrs. Alice Fowler, a widow, was awoken at home in the outskirts of the city by the

of a burly and repulsive negro man, of notoriously evil character, who brutally accosted the terrified lady with a demand for money. Her children awakened by the noise, six in number commenced crying, but the monster silenced them with kicks and threats and the trembling mother hurriedly procured $7.50—stole the money she had—and handed it to him. He pocketed the amount and immediately seized the lady and in spite of her desperate struggles, entranced her in the presence of her children. Later in the day by which appallative the negro is known, was arrested and being taken into the presence of the sheriff, was identified by her. On the way to jail, the seceded made a sudden dash and fled from his custodians. He soon reached the house of an associate and procured a revolver and, having barricaded the door, suspiciously dined the officers and at length escaped.

TO THE COURTS.

The sheriff, with a posse, is after him and it is not doubted that he will be captured. Meanwhile the town is filling up with indignant men from the surrounding country and preparations are in progress for a lynching. No amount of resistance on the part of the officers will save him if once he enters this town.

MRS. ALICE FOWLER.

The unfortunate lady so vilely abused as described is about 35 years old. Her husband died some years ago, and she has supported herself and children by hard labor and frugal care of her earnings. She enjoyed the esteem of her neighbors, and their sympathy is manifested on every hand. From the choking and beating she received she is suffering great pain, and has had a copious hemorrage. Skilled physicians are with her, and she may recover, although her situation is critical.

THE HERALD'S TICKET.

FOR YOUR VOTING AND HENRY W. GRADY.
GODFREY & CO., 604 Main.

New York, May 2.—The Herald this morning says: "In metropolis it was inevitable the practice to take either president or vice-president from the South. Is it not time that the second highest post of honor in the government be again opened to the South and

TO A SOUTHERNER.

The Democratic party can now well afford to name a southerner for the vice-presidency and it may strengthen its ticket by doing so. What southerner is most widely and favorably known north, as well as south? By popular selection, Henry W. Grady, of Atlanta, will at once be accorded that distinction.

THE HERALD'S TICKET.

The Herald proposes the following ticket for 1888:

For President: Grover Cleveland of New York.

For Vice-President: Henry W. Grady of Georgia.

A DEACONESS.

Bishop Potter, of New York, Proposes a Deaconess as Deacon on St. George's.

New York, May 2.—Services at St. George church, Episcopal, yesterday forenoon were of historic importance. A deaconess was admitted to the Episcopal church. A century has passed since such an event occurred in the church, and never before in America did such a thing occur. The lady was duly installed. Bishop Potter officiating in person. The deaconess is Miss Julia Elizabeth Farnset, of this city. As many persons as the church would contain attended the annual services, and many who desired to witness the rites were turned away for want of standing room. Bishop Potter explained that the deaconess is not a sister, but instead, she remains in the world, mingles with it, but all the time she is engaged in the church's work suited to her sex and capacity.

DEFALCATION DOINGS.

Once Popular Citizen—A New Name For Canada—"Parts Unknown."
Another One.

WICHITA, Kans., May 2.—A great sensation was produced here yesterday on the discovery that District Attorney Thos. J. McGowan was a defaulter to the extent of between $1,000 and $20,000 and that he had left for parts unknown—probably Canada. Four years prior to his becoming district attorney—to which office he was elected by a large majority last fall—McGowan was supervisor of the town of Newton. His popularity was so great that on two occasions he was re-elected without opposition. The funds which he has misappropriated belonged to the town, of which he was supervisor as supervisor, he was excommunicated from which the trustees of the bonded and other indebtedness of the town should have been paid.

SOMETHING IN THE SAME LINE.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—James N. Taggart, who for several years has been paying teller of the Union Trust company, at Nos. 611 and 613 Chestnut street, absconded and an examination of the books of the company shows a deficit of something less than $100,000. Exactly the amount of the defalcation has not yet been ascertained.

FIRE RECORD.VAST STORES OF FEED STUFFS.

TOPEKA, Kans., May 2.—A most disastrous fire broke out at 10 o'clock this evening at the immense warehouse of Brown, Johnson & Co., on Fourteenth and Maple streets. The building contained an immense amount of hay, barley, rye, corn and oats. Half an hour after the warehouse had started burning the nine-story grain elevator of Strader Bros., at Fourteenth and Broadway caught from the thickly flying sparks. The Strader elevator was within a half block of the burning warehouse. The tower first caught and then the whole structure became enveloped in one solid flame. At the time of the breaking out of the fire no less than forty freight cars, mostly loaded, were lying on the side track in the vicinity of the burning buildings. All but fourteen of these were saved. The cars belonged to the Louisville and Nashville railroad company and were loaded with hay, grain and other feed stuffs and the entire fourteen were totally destroyed with their contents. The loss is about $50,000. The loss on the warehouse and grain elevator exceeds $200,000.

An Appalling Accident.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 2.—The main steam pipe of the tow boat, J. C. Fisher, exploded a few minutes before 1 o'clock this morning, with terrific force, shattering the vessel, killing one man instantly and fatally injuring two more. A deck hand named Hayes who was standing in the cabin just over boiler room was blown through the cabin roof and torn to shreds.

The Irreversible Condition.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The total number of police arrests in the city, yesterday, was 125. One saloon keeper, when arrested, drew a revolver, but was disarmed and marched off. The German singing societies met again yesterday. Representatives were present from seventy-six choirs of this city and Brooklyn. Speeches were made denouncing the vice law which prevented members of singing societies from holding rehearsals in halls attached to beer saloons. An organization was effected to put the question to legal test and also to fight it at the polls.

Geocological.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—For Texas: Cooler and fairer weather succeeded in the southeast portion by local rains, and followed in the northwest portion by rising temperature. Northerly winds.
